The Art of Well-being: Living with Illness
Keynote speaker: Dr. Havi Carel, via web-streaming.

Professor Havi Carel will discuss the experience of illness and why it matters. Illness matters deeply to how we live our life not only when unwell, but also when healthy. Havi Carel will present an analysis of the experience of illness, drawing on phenomenology, and in connection with Jehangir Saleh's writing. She will touch on the relationship between illness and happiness and discuss the importance of illness to philosophy.

Havi Carel is Professor of Philosophy at the University of Bristol, where she also teaches medical students. Her research examines the experience of illness and of receiving healthcare. Havi is the author of Illness (2008, 2013), shortlisted for the Wellcome Trust Book Prize, and of Life and Death in Freud and Heidegger (2006). She is the co-editor of Health, Illness and Disease (2012) and of What Philosophy Is (2004).

Jehangir Saleh

This lecture honours the life of Jehangir Saleh (1985-2013), a vibrant student of Philosophy and graduate of the Arts & Contemporary Studies program (2009) at Ryerson University. The Jehangir Saleh lecture is made possible through an endowed gift from the family of Noorali & Saker Saleh and friends, in partnership with the Faculty of Arts, Department of Philosophy and the Arts & Contemporary Studies program.
